Awesome:

you don't know the meaning of the word
 until you meet Jesus.

Believing Christ died is history.
 Believing He died for you is salvation.

Blessed are the flexible,
 for they shall not get all bent out of shape.

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart,
 and do not lean on your own understanding.
 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths"
 (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Happiness is a hard thing because it is only achieved by making other happy.

MISTY

Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow.
 What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes.

Person To Person

"Be still and know that I am God. I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth! The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our fortress" (Psalm 46:10-11, ESV).

One of my favorite movies is the 1956 version of "The Ten Commandments" filmed, directed and narrated by Cecil B. DeMille. One of my favorite scenes in the movie is the Red Sea crossing, especially the moment when Moses (Charlton Heston) raises his staff and speaks those famous words and the waters begin to part. In the movie version he tells the Israelites, "The Lord of Hosts will do battle for us," and then turns to the Red Sea, spreads out his arms and declares, "Behold His mighty hand."

However, Hollywood is never quite the same as the original. In Exodus 14:13-14, Moses tells us what he said to the Israelites that day, "Do not fear! Stand by and see the salvation of the Lord which He will accomplish for you today; for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you will never see them again forever. The Lord will fight for you while you keep silent."

First, he tells them not to be afraid. Of what were the Israelites afraid? They were afraid of Pharaoh and his army who were in hot pursuit. Then Moses told the people to "stand by and see the salvation of the Lord which He will accomplish for you today" (v. 13). The command, "stand by" is better rendered "stand firm" or "stand your ground." In other words, "don't turn and run" but "stand your ground" and see what the Lord is about to do. What the Lord was about to do was destroy the Egyptian army which was pursuing them. Finally, Moses encouraged the Israelites, "The Lord will fight for you while you keep silent" (v. 14). There was no way for the Israelites to fight and defeat the Egyptian army on their own. The Egyptians were highly trained soldiers with the best weapons. The Israelites were former slaves with no training in warfare. Only the Lord could defeat this army which was pursuing them.

Oh, Moses still had something which he was to do and the Israelites had something they were to do. Notice the next two verses, "Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the sons of Israel to go forward. As for you, lift up your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, and the sons of Israel shall go through the midst of the sea on dry land' (Exodus 14:15-16). Of course you know the rest of the story.

Our story, in the midst of this virus, is still being written. Let us continue to pray to the Lord while trusting in Him to bring an end to it, and let us do all that is within our power to flatten the curve and keep ourselves and others safe as we move forward!

 If you did not get either of the calls this weekend announcing the service changes, please let the office know. We are using our new service now and want to make sure you are on the list.

We extend our greatest sympathy to the family of Kent Phebus who passed away on Monday, March 23rd. No arrangements have been made at the time of printing and are not expected until a much later time.

Our elders, after much pray and consideration have decided that it is best for us to comply with the CDC and presidential request to not gather in groups. It is their decision to not have services at the building through March 31st. There will not be a 4th Wed. meal in March. There will be devotions on Facebook on Sunday morning and Wed evening. We will broadcast on cable channel 3 Sundays at our regular time 1:00 pm., on the radio at 10:00am and 5:30 pm and M-F at 12:30pm. These recording will also be available on our website. Individual communion sets are available at the building if you wish to drop in during regular business hours. For after-hours pick up, call the office or one of the elders. Please mail in your contributions or drop them by the building. If you find yourself in need please call the office. We pray that these difficult times will draw us closer to God and remind us to be a thankful people.

"Because of all my adversaries I have become a reproach, especially to my neighbors, and an object of dread to my acquaintances; those who see me in the street flee from me. I have been forgotten like one who is dead; I have become like a broken vessel. For I hear the whispering of many—terror on every side!—as they scheme together against me, as they plot to take my life. But I trust in you, O LORD; I say, 'You are my God.' My times are in your hand; rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from my persecutors! Make your face shine on your servant; save me in your steadfast love! O LORD, let me not be put to shame, for I call upon you; let the wicked be put to shame; let them go silently to Sheol. Let the lying lips be mute, which speak insolently against the righteous in pride and contempt. Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of the children of mankind" (Psalm 31:11-19)!

Let Us Thatch Our House Now

G. F. Raines lay, calmly awaiting his departure. His loving daughter brought his precious Bible to his bedside and said, "Father, shall I read a chapter to you?" The dying man, being in much pain, said, "Na, na, lassie, the storm's up noo. I theeeked (thatched) ma hoose in the calm weather." Those who thatch their spiritual house in calm weather are the wisest of all people on the earth. Amos, a great Hebrew prophet, says: "...prepare to meet thy God" (Amos 4:12). We must prepare to meet God because "he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead" (Acts 17:31). To truly prepare to meet our God, we must come to Him through our Lord Jesus Christ by obedience to the Gospel (John 14:6; Romans 1: 16,17; Mark 16:16; Acts 2:36-41), and then "live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world" (see Titus 2:11,12; 2 Peter 1:5-11). If you are not in the right relationship with God, you are in exceedingly critical need of making the necessary preparation to meet God today. The Book of God says: "Boast not thyself of tomorrow; for thou knowest not what a day may, bring forth" (Proverbs 27:1). G.F. Raines, retired preacher of the gospel, lives in Celina, Tennessee, USA.
